CAMILLE G. FESCHE AND BRAD I. RIFKIN ELECTED AS PARTNERS AT RWL

ANNAPOLIS, MD (January 11, 2021) – Rifkin Weiner Livingston LLC (RWL), a premier legal and government relations firm based in Annapolis, Baltimore and Bethesda, today announced that Camille Fesche and Brad Rifkin have been elected by their colleagues to be the partners of the firm. Ms. Fesche and Mr. Rifkin are currently co-chairs of RWL’s Government Relations Division.

“We couldn’t be prouder and more excited to name Camille and Brad partners. Their experience and growth throughout their careers have made this the next logical step,” said Michael V. Johansen, Administrative Partner. “We look forward to their leadership in navigating the upcoming legislative session during these unprecedented times.”

“I am honored in my colleagues’ confidence in electing me as a partner. RWL has a stellar reputation in the legal and government relations sectors and I am excited to be a part of its continued growth and leadership,” said Ms. Fesche.

“I am humbled by the decision to elect me as a partner. I look forward to continuing to adapt and expand our government relations practice to fully meet the needs of our clients in these changing times,” said Mr. Rifkin.

Ms. Fesche received her Juris Doctor from Georgetown University Law Center and obtained her bachelor’s degree from Johns Hopkins University in International Relations. Fesche successfully represent clients on topics related to education, wind energy, utilities, healthcare, deathcare, information technology, the civil justice system, bond bills for non-profit organizations, and procurement matters.

Mr. Rifkin received his Juris Doctor from The University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law. He graduated with honors from Brown University. Rifkin successfully represent clients with a wide array of statutory, regulatory, funding and procurement interests, including automobile dealer, casino-gaming, innovative technology, insurance, non-profit organizations, rental cars, ride-sharing and ride-hailing.
