

Maryland Procurement Law ALERT

RWL ANNOUNCES FORMATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW GROUP

Since its formation, Rifkin Weiner Livingston LLC has been widely recognized for its Administrative Law practice. Historically, the firm's practice in this area has been serviced through various divisions of the firm, including State Contracts, Procurement and Bid Protests; Gaming and Lottery; Cannabis; and Complex Commercial and Civil Litigation.

In an effort to serve our clients in a more holistic manner, RWL announces the consolidation and formation of its "Administrative Law Group" which will provide legal services in a number of categories, including:

- Administrative and regulatory review and guidance;
- Bid protests and appeals;
- Cannabis advice and counsel;
- Casino gaming and lottery matters;
- Statutory and regulatory counsel; and
- Other state and local matters involving governmental action or oversight.

The Administrative Law Group is chaired by Stuart Cherry and vice chaired by Devon Harman Maunz. It also includes Michael Berman, Alan Rifkin, Michael Johansen, Scott Livingston, Michael Marr, Brad Rifkin, Sara Sellers and Emily Gordon.

"Administrative Law is one of the foundational bedrocks of the firm, and I can think of no one better than Stu Cherry to lead the practice," said Alan M. Rifkin, RWL's managing partner.

According to Stu Cherry, "RWL is widely recognized for our Administrative Law practice, and it only makes sense to organize the various practice areas under one umbrella. That way our clients who are in need of everything from administrative or regulatory advice to state-related litigation can be more fully serviced."

RWL is a full-service law firm with offices located in Annapolis, Baltimore/Towson and Bethesda, Maryland. RWL is also a member of SCG Legal, a global network of law firms. For more information, we can be reached at https://www.rwllaw.com/, and on Facebook, LinkedIn.
